

I Shall Be Released

by Bob Dylan

G Am
They say everything can be replaced

Bm C D G
Yet every distance is not near

G Am
So I remember every face

Bm C D G
Of every man who put me here.

G Am
I see my light come shining
Bm C D G
From the west unto the east.

G
Any day now,

Am
Any day now,

Bm C G
I shall be released

G Am
They say every man needs protection.

Bm C D G
They say that every man must fall.

G Am
Yet I swear I see my reflection,

Bm C D G
Someplace so high above this wall.

G Am
Well yonder stands a man in this lonely crowd,

Bm C D G
A man who swears he's not to blame.

G Am
All day long I hear him cry out so loud,

Bm C D G
Calling out that he's been framed.
